Camden S. Holley

Hello! My name is Camden S. Holley, and I am the fourteen-year-old author of My Pet, Peeve. I'm so excited to come and visit you, and I can't wait to share my writing and publishing journey!

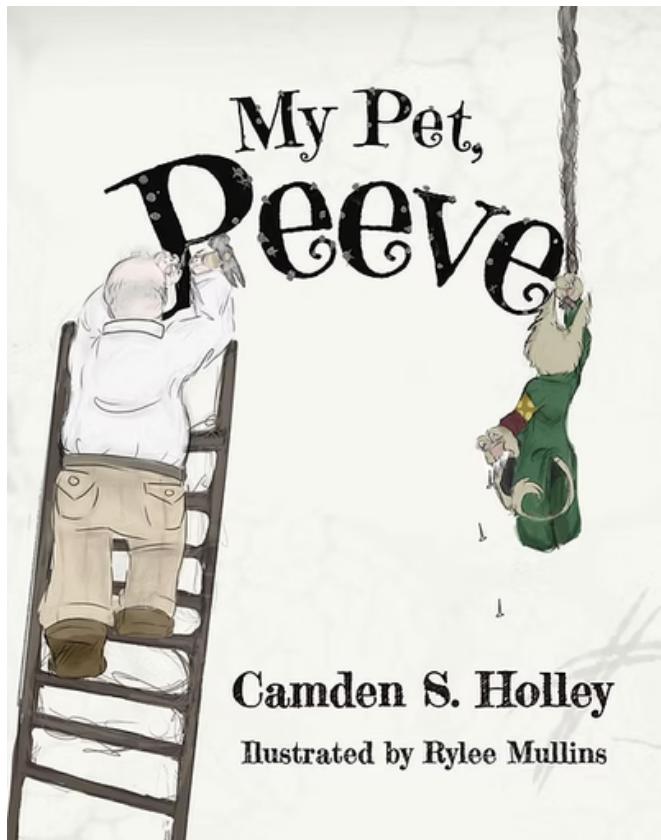

I was inspired to write the book when my brother was singing a song about pet peeves, and the idea for a pet peeve as a literal pet just popped into my mind. Now, I am working on many other children's books and am planning on publishing more!

It is through children like you that I get most of my ideas and that my imprint, Holley House Books (of Igniting Souls Publishing Agency) was created.

Besides writing books, I enjoy running, acting, writing for my school newspaper, sculpting, and drawing. If you have any questions or want to know more about me, here are some places you can find me on the internet with a little help from your teacher or guardian. I'm so excited to see you!

If you think your pet is annoying, meet mine! He doesn't behave and is never in line. See, I have a horrible pet named Sir Peeve. I want him to go! I want him to leave! He pesters and bothers and never does right. He'll squeal, and he'll scream. He'll bother and bite. Whatever I do, he roams all about. So, please, lend a hand, sit down, and help out! Be ready to meet the most bothersome pest. He's ready to aggravate you to his best!

My Pet, Peeve is a poetic children's picture book. It is for grades 2 to 5, introducing children to seeing people from a new perspective and loving even the craziest of traits, as well as building vocabulary.
